268 young people, representing 20 different libraries are competing on 36 teams.

Competitors are in grades six through nine and are prepared to answer a variety of interesting trivia questions about the books they have been reading.

2011 Titles Include:

Alchemyst by Michael Scott

The Westing Game by Ellen Raskin

No More Dead Dogs by Gordon Korman

Skulduggery Pleasant by Derek Landry
Waiting for Normal by Leslie Connor

In 1999, when the Battle of the Books started there were six teams and 75 team members.

The event is free, open to the public and perfect all ages.

Special thanks to Cynthia E. Voss for her generous donation of funds to purchase a buzzer system for Battle of the Books.
