

REVISED MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release: August 29, 2011

For More Information: Joy Testa Cinquino, Library Public Affairs Mgr. testaj@buffalolib.org, 858-7182

YOUTH CHESS TOURNAMENT SLATED FOR AUDUBON LIBRARY SEPTEMBER 3

The Archangel 8 Chess Academy in cooperation with the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System invites young chess players entering grades K-12 to participate in the Back to School Scholastic K-12 Chess Tournament, to be held this coming Saturday, September 3 at the Audubon Library, 350 John James Audubon Parkway, Amherst. Three to five games will be played starting at 1:00 p.m.

Advance registration for players is required – send an e-mail with full player name, grade, school, and phone number to no Arcangel8chess@yahoo.com later than midnight on Friday, September 2. There is no cost to participate. Chess players must understand “checkmate” in order to play. U.S. Chess Federation rules will be enforced. Limited chess sets and boards will be provided.

This event is a special precursor to “National Chess Day” on Sunday, October 9, when the Buffalo Chess Day Tournament open to USCF members grades K-12 will be held at the downtown Central Library at Lafayette Square. For further information on upcoming youth chess activities, contact Arcangel8chess@yahoo.com.

###