eReader Open Labs Coming to a Buffalo & Erie County Public Library Near You

Thinking about buying an eReader or Tablet computer or wondering how to use the one you already have? The Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System can help! Drop by an upcoming free “open lab,” to learn how to use your device or a “technology petting zoo” to test drive a variety of eReader types and learn more about them. The training begins with a petting zoo this Thursday, October 18 from 10 a.m. – 1p.m. at the Orchard Park Public Library located at S-4570 South Buffalo Street. We'll also have handouts with product reviews to assist and educate you about eReader options.
