

Downtown Library to Host 8th Annual “Indie Author Day” on Saturday, November 2 as Workshop for Local Writers

Are you thinking about writing a book? What are your options to get your work published? Whether you’ve ever been published or not, or if you want to find out more, “Indie Author Day” will take place at the Downtown Central Library’s Auditorium, 1 Lafayette Square, Buffalo, on Saturday, November 2 from 9:15 a.m.-1:15 p.m.

This workshop day for local current and aspiring writers is free but registration is required at <https://buffalolib.libcal.com/event/13061991>.

The day will include several experienced speakers, a panel discussion and time for coffee and networking with each other. There will be ample Q & A time with the speakers.

The Buffalo & Erie County Public Library has been a participant in the national “Indie Author Day” since its inception, intended to connect local writers with their libraries and their communities. For more information: 716-858-8900 or visit:
