

CELEBRATE WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Gregory Kinal Famous Women in US History

Thursday, March 27

6:30 p.m.

Adults, 19+

Registration is Required

Listen as Gregory Kinal illustrates the remarkable women in American history from all walks of life, their vocations and what they shared with us. This presentation covers their legendary lives in the arts, sports, as women in a man's world, and everything in between.

Born in Buffalo's Old First Ward and a long-time resident of Elma, Kinal is a respected educator and researcher with more than 50 years' experience. A well-known speaker on Americana, Kinal's vast repertoire includes lectures on more than 50 uniquely informative and entertaining topics, which he has presented to numerous historical societies and organizations to great acclaim.
