

Charcuterie 101

Tuesday, November 19th 11am–12:30pm

at the West Seneca Public Library

Join Liz Bauld as she shows you how to make a couple of beautiful charcuterie boards. This class will be demonstration style, but after Liz shows you how to make easy "meat roses", you will have the opportunity to try your hand at the process.

This program is for adults!

Registration required.

Call 716-674-2928

or stop by the library to register.

Individuals in need of an accommodation for a program may contact the ADA Coordinator at access@buffalolib.org within 7 days of the program.