

German-Speaking Aliens in the Library:
Learning Speech as You Grow Up and Grow Older

with Chris Heffner

Saturday, March 15 11am

in the Community Room

Space limited. Registration required.

Call 716-674-2928

or stop by the library to register!

In collaboration with the West Seneca Public Library and other community sites, Dr. Chris Heffner has been investigating the ways that our ability to learn languages and adjust to challenging speech can change as we age, anywhere from childhood to older adulthood and everything in between. Join us as he lays out his findings in a short talk and discussion!

Individuals in need of an accommodation for a program may contact the ADA Coordinator at access@buffalolib.org within 7 days of the program.
